

Maria T. Espinosa
Vice President, Programs
Fulfillment Fund

Ms. Espinosa has an extensive background in operations, business development, management, and information technology and systems.

She is responsible for all aspects of the Fulfillment Fund's mentoring, counseling and scholarship programs, along with its classroom instruction component, the College Access Program (CAP), impacting more than 1,500 students annually. She oversees the Fulfillment Fund's student tours of colleges and universities around the country and its annual, daylong Destination College.

Since joining the Fulfillment Fund in 2000, Ms. Espinosa has brought significant best practices to the organization, including the development of a student intervention tool to improve the delivery of classroom curriculum and better monitor its impact on individual student progress. She has been instrumental in improving the organization's evaluation, data and collection standards, to better serve the students.

A native of the Los Angeles area, Ms. Espinosa earned her Bachelor of Arts degree from University of California, Los Angeles.
